Scribbles, Stickers & Glue: A Kids' Guide to Scrapbooking Nikki Larsen

The title says it all: this kids' guide turns scrapbooking into child's play. Every activity is fun, every technique a delight, and every colorful page an inspiration. What could be better than messing about with shaving cream while making fabulous papers at the same time? Or creating Bubble Prints by blowing ink through a straw? The good times begin with putting together a basic tool kit of easily found items such as alphabet stickers, papers, and markers. Then youngsters can get down and dirty making Linoleum Block Images, Styrofoam Prints, Tin Foil Relief, Photograph Pockets, Mosaic Scraps and more. The projects put these techniques to use on bright, appealing scrapbook pages that celebrate holidays, family, school events, and other important moments in a child's life.
