Solar (Fence Modern Poets Series) Kevin Holden

Solar is a generative tracking device; its consciousness is nonspecific, privileging the textual in disarming ways for which we must be thankful. There's real life going down here—cum, chemistry (organic and bio-), corn, supermoon—and all on the rainbow surface of a burning, inhospitable star.

we called every one 'twin' there if you are trying to see inside

white / gold / radii

you have to remember that you have had these experiences yourself

Kevin Holden is from Rhode Island, and lives in Manhattan. He translates poetry from Russian and French, and teaches at Bard College and Yale University.
