Starting Barrel Horses: 6 week fast track training program for teaching horses the barrel pattern (Fine Tuning Barrel Horses) (Volume 2) Jessi Mead

In Starting Barrel Horses Jessi reveals her unique six week fast-track training regimen for teaching horses the barrel pattern and helping them reach champion-level success. Her method of introducing only one aspect of the barrel pattern at a time allows the horse to master each component individually before stringing them together in a complete barrel run. This process dramatically decreases training time while increasing the accuracy and consistency of every run. Jessi also shares essential knowledge from over three decades of experience training champion barrel horses including: • what confirmation and bloodlines to look for to set yourself up for success • how to select and fit the right barrel racing bit, saddle, and tack to meet both the rider and horse's individual needs • a wide variety of easy to follow drills and instructions—along with detailed diagrams—walking you through the daily training regimen from start-to-finish • and much, much more This program for starting barrel horses is thorough and informative, but also easy to understand and implement regardless of your current experience. It is a must-read for every horse owner wishing to produce top-level talent.
