BEARTOOTH Diary of a Nomadic Herder By Pascal Wick Beginning in the French Alps, ending in the Alpujarras, Spain, the major part of the Diary is written in the Absaroka Beartooth Wilderness, Montana, USA. It is the extraordinary story of a man who alone herded 1800 sheep for several months in almost virgin territory and, thanks to his guard dogs, was able to limit the threat of coyote, black bear, grizzly and mountain lion. A book that will open your eyes to ways of life that have quietly persisted since the dawn of human society.
