Esmé Thompson: The Alchemy of Design

This catalogue presents artist Esmé Thompson's recent work in a variety of media: paintings, collages, drawings, and wall installations. Thompson, who is a professor of studio art at Dartmouth College, draws on a rich variety of sources including Renaissance portraits, Moroccan textiles, wall painting, ceramics, medieval illuminated manuscripts, biological illustrations, photographs, and the art of modern painters in creating her intricate and layered surfaces. Medieval studies scholar Marjorie Woods and artist and ceramicist Liz Quackenbush provide essays on the artist, written from their different perspectives. This catalogue is perfect for devotees of the rich heritage of pattern and design in cultures across the globe.
