A Trip to California in 1853 Washington Bailey

Washington Bailey (1831 - 1922) was an Illinois pioneer who went on a gold seeking trip by ox train across the plains and mountains to California. In 1915, Bailey published his book "A TRIP TO CALIFORNIA IN 1853" of his adventures on the trail to California. Bailey writes: "We had built our fires and were just ready to commence getting supper, when we heard the Indians begin holloing, "Show shony, show shony, humbugen, humbugen oss cawaw, cawowaw cawowaw cawowaw cawaw cawaw." "The first time they holloed this, uncle Joshua Bailey said, "There! We are going to be attacked. That is the war whoop. Put out the fires and corral the wagons." "The wagons were placed in a circle, running the tongues under each other so we could get inside and protect ourselves from their arrows as much as possible. When we got that done, which was in short order, he said, "All hands load your guns and your revolvers and have your knives ready."
