Business and pleasure never has mixed, but Branson, Amina, Laney, and Luke are determined to prove that logic wrong. From the outside looking in, these two couples have it all. They have the money, they hold the power, and they demand the respect. However, there is more to them than meets the eye. Branson was taught from the beginning that in order to have a life of luxury, he needed to cut his emotions out of the picture. At the age of twenty-one, he is fearless and determined to take the streets over the way his father tried to. Amina captures Branson's heart from the moment they connect eyes. Branson is not used to a chase so the pursuit she takes him on intrigues him even more. As Amina slowly starts to let him into her life, he slowly starts to change his view on women. Laney was never ready for love and with her past it's obvious why. That is until Luke joins the circle and his efforts find a way into her heart. When Laney falls hard for him and starts finding herself as a woman, she starts questioning her street ties in hopes of a better life. Luke is new to the group but his loyalty is apparent. Tired of living a mediocre life, he sees a way out as he joins forces with Branson. The two soon form a bond closer than brothers. Paradise never lasts long when you're in the streets. Everyone in this group all have one thing in common, they all hold deep dark secrets. When everyone's problems come out, will they still have the perfect bond, or will they let the streets break them apart?
