In 2045 three self-indulgent individuals, bound together by deeds they would prefer remained secret, are transported back to ancient Rome. Sold into slavery, Jane to the imperial palace, Nate to a wealthy widower, and Amanda to a grain merchant, the three discover their mobile phones can still connect to a future that is running fifty times faster than the past, while famous events, infamous figures, and confused timelines swirl around them. Above them, on shields of crystal, fly a race of diminutive people, one of whom Nate caught sight of outside his second storey bedroom window in the future. The Time of Their Lives trilogy is the epic tale of the unwilling time travellers rise to power.
