ArcInfo 8 is the world's most advanced Graphic Information Systems (GIS) software, offering unprecedented ease of use and opportunity for the professional developer. This book provides the foundation for carrying out development tasks -- whether it's making simple point-and-click changes to the user interface, creating ActiveX add-ins, or working with third-party CASE tools. Included are instructions on how to use VBA inside ArcInfo 8, work with the various ArcObjects Model subsystems, and customize ArcInfo 8 with a click -- without writing any code. Using plain language and extensive code samples, this book is the developer's passport to understanding the potential offered by ArcInfo 8.
