Conquering Love (The Love Series) (Volume 1) Xan Tucker

Dillon Knight is a successful businessman and the State Senator for Illinois. He is white, handsome, exudes intelligence and charisma and is every woman's dream. Except for Tuesday Cole. Tuesday is a successful Chicago attorney. She is a strong-minded and motivated black woman, determined to succeed, and desperately keen to avoid any sort of emotional entanglement which will get in the way of her ambition to become the next Senator of Illinois. When the two meet for the first time there is a mutual attraction and something is awoken in Dillon that he hasn't experienced before. Could he be falling in love with Tuesday? Whether he is or not, doesn't matter to Tuesday. She only knows what she wants is his job and pushes against his advances at every turn, not interested in having anything other than a casual relationship with him. But Dillon won't give up that easily. He's prepared to sacrifice a lot for Tuesday and when her crazed ex-boyfriend shows up and begins a campaign of stalking and harassment against her, and issuing threats against her life, Dillon knows that he will have to act to save the woman he loves. Whether she loves him back or not.
