Mennonite Quilts and Pieces Judy Schroeder Tomlonson

This is an absolutely beautiful book, with full color images of both Mennonite quilts and the landscape of "Amish Country." The story of each quilt is given, whether as just a name, year and current owner, or through a short reminiscence regarding the quilt or its maker. Readers are immediately drawn into the feeling of simplicity, peace, thrift, and heritage as they are treated to lovely photographs of the natural world that surrounds the daily lives of the Mennonite quilters. The quilts themselves, done in slightly more "worldly" fabrics and patterns than their Amish neighbors, will inspire and dazzle you. Contents: ? A thing of beauty ? Waste not, want not ? A family of faith ? Hard work & hard times ? Family ties ? Gift of love ? The quilting community ? Precious memories ? Readings & sources ? Index ? About the author
