Inspirational Historical Romance Novel

Romance. Heartbreak. Scandal. Secrets. Second Chances.

In 1902, Sarah McCall is waiting to leave for the mission field when the man she once loved steps back into her life. Abandoned as a child by her mother and gambler father, she strives to overcome a tarnished history she didn't create and a heartbreak she can't forget.

Peter Caswell returns to his Wisconsin hometown a pastor, dedicated to his four-year-old daughter and new congregation. But no matter how hard he tries to move on with his life, he can't forgive himself for his wife's death.

When Sarah learns that Peter is returning to Riverton, the letter giving her departure date for Africa can't come soon enough for her. They were best friends—she loved him and supported his dreams—but he married another and broke her heart. Although ten years have passed since he left Riverton, Peter hopes Sarah still cares enough to give him a second chance. But a charming newcomer pursues her affections—and Sarah's childhood nemesis manipulates her way into Peter's life. Will Sarah and Peter find their way to forgiveness and each other, or will past mistakes make a life together impossible?
