The Shortest Novel In The World.....With Only One Character.....AAP Books present..... TROUBLE AT WORK. It's the summer of 1971 at JNN enterprises. Atticus' boss has just been replaced by a go-getting career climbing slime ball. This new boss has been appointed to shake things up! Having just put a down payment for his upcoming wedding young Atticus cannot afford to lose his job. The culture of slack has definitely been replaced with a culture of fear. Atticus is forced to grow up quickly and has to work late almost every night to stand any chance of completing project X much to the annoyance of his fiancé. The deadline comes and passes. Atticus fails to complete project X on time and his fiancé has almost had enough. Atticus refuses to accept defeat and decides to work the weekend to crack Project X even though it means missing his fiancé's brother's 21st birthday garden party at his fiancé's parent's house. At the eleventh hour he cracks it and rushes to the garden party where he hopes his fiancé will be understanding. He arrives at the front door and she can see the joy in his face. He explains to her that she should no longer fear him losing his job and the wedding will happen after all. She is pleased and as they walk to the garden she asks him how he cracked Project X. He replies.....
