A Heartbeat from Heaven

Compiled and edited by Leland R. Fleming, A Heartbeat From Heaven is a specially compiled songbook full of some of the finest Gospel songs available. It includes songs of praise, worship, encouragement, edification, communion, and invitation; making this book a great resource for all facets of worship. In addition, there are great arrangements for quartet or special group singing. Communion and Invitation songs are conveniently located near the end of the book for quick access to the appropriate song needed. Located at the very back of the book is a General Index to easily and quickly locate individual titles. It is the publisher's desire and prayer that you will be blessed by the songs within these pages. We hope you will find opportunities to bless others with the songs you sing. May these songs contribute to your efforts and may they afford you opportunity to reach your community with the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ. As our title song states, we are only "A Heartbeat from Heaven." May we walk each day realizing the joy He has given us and always do so with a song in our heart! Perfect for church use or for quartet/ special group singing!
