What would you do if you woke up one day with special abilities? How would you feel if God told you about a destiny way bigger than you can imagine? For high school student Danny Davidson, the answers don't come easily. As Danny faces the challenges of his high school life, he finds himself developing his dual identity as Captain Fuego, a light of hope in a darkened world. It doesn't take long for him to realize how much he falls short of what a hero is supposed to be: he's insecure about himself; his faith in God is limited; he makes a series of mistakes that haunt him in the future. However, in the midst of all that, he learns that being a hero isn't about being perfect. As his faith in God's goodness and love grows, so does the strength of his character. This leads to a final showdown against a force of incredible power. Will he be able to rise up as the hero that's desperately needed for such a time as this...?
