Grandmother Letters Dickie Anderson

Award-winning author, Dickie Anderson, offers a collection of letters which reveal her joy in becoming a grandmother. The letters are full of the irrepressible enthusiasm upon finding out she was pregnant, or more specifically a daughter-in-law was pregnant. Anderson feared she would be the one in diapers before a baby joined the family. She shares the memories of her own babies and their first days. Longing for the stories of her own mother and grandmother she offers a tutorial in the back of the book encouraging all grandmothers to write their own "grandmother letters".
