Get Over the Rainbow: why everyone should fight for gay rights is a controversial book that will further ignite the debate over gay rights and gay marriage. Written from the perspective of a straight male, Scott Redmond makes it difficult for anyone to conclude that homosexuals do not deserve total equality. Some parts of Get Over the Rainbow were being written just as the gay marriage issue was exploding, demonstrating that Redmond's journeys through the legal, religious and social arguments against opposition to gay marriage are right on target. Redmond uses the issue of gay rights to explain the nature of news and the impact of entertainment and right-wing talk radio on America. Get Over the Rainbow challenges those opposing gay marriage and reinforces those in support.
