The Mountains Joey Willis

Micah just heard The Voice of The Great Spirit and is desperate to follow where it leads. His ancient village is wedged between a mysterious mountain range and a vast ocean. Nobody in the village has ever known what lies beyond either. After experiencing triumph and tragedy within the village, Micah decides to dare the journey over the mountains. Unbeknownst to the people of the village, the world is at war. A strange race of creature has been battling humans for as long as anyone can remember. Out West, the island of Hell looms and its darkness is spreading. Micah quickly finds himself in the heart of the conflict. Joined by a supernatural guide and a band of complicated companions, Micah discovers more than he could have imagined about identity, the nature of love and the dangers and joys of risking it all.
