Diary of a Change Agent Tony Page

Tony Page is a 40-something management consultant, wrestling with the conflicting demands of a growing business and a growing family. For three years he kept a diary, to which he confided his hopes and fears, his triumphs and setbacks. With painful honesty he analyzed his working and business relationships as he strove to add value to his clients' business and improve his own abilities. The diary captures a unique personal journey and should be of interest to those serious about business performance improvement, change and learning.
