Solus Brenden Belluardo

"The sunrise calls us daily, skies wear only blue. The moon is always watching me, and I can't hide from you. Mirrors are persistent, time won't fade away. My mind will sign an armistice, but I can't let her stay."

Solus is the first poetry book by Brenden Belluardo, published at the age of 16. This visual and emotional journey through nature explores our relationship with the world around us, and how it relates to the people we interact with on a daily basis. Come along and explore our world and the world of the author's mind, and maybe you will find out something about yourself you may not have known about before.
