Amish Mystery and Romance: Love's Plain Truths Rachel H. Kester

A dangerous Rumspringa leaves one woman fighting for her life. Leah Miller is the typical 17-year old Amish girl enjoying her time away from her village as she experiences Rumspringa, a period in which Amish teenagers live in the non-Amish world and decide to either be baptized and or leave the community. She loves spending time with her friend Grace, and she is thrilled that her crush, a young carpenter named Luke Troyer, seems to be interested in her too. One day when she arrives at the quilt shop where she works, her boss tells her that a strange man was there earlier asking about a young girl named Miller. Leah does not think much of it; Miller is a common last name after all. But when more and more people report to her that a man was asking them the same questions, Leah begins to grow concerned. Who is it that is so interested in her? And why? As the days progress, Leah begins to notice that the same car keeps appearing everywhere she goes. Confused and frightened, Leah strives to take precautions, but the incidences just keep escalating. Eventually, she finds herself fighting just to stay alive. Will Leah fall prey to this mysterious stalker? Why is she his target in the first place? Will she and her friends be able to find out before it is too late?
