Bertha Patricia Fernandini León

Year 4290 The Earth is just a dead planet that spins uninhabited in the space. When the ozone layer finally disappeared, animals, plants and almost all humanity perished. People remaining managed to survive by traveling to Azul Terra, a planet similar to the Earth. Unfortunately, this planet seems to be condemned to disappear too. The leader of the survivors is Captain Leo, a brave scientist that decided to depart in his spaceship to try to find a new place to live and save the humankind. Captain Leo's team is integrated by extraordinary companions: Maris, scientist and an expert in transforming species using genetic experiments. Columba. Has the ability to fly with wings that grow from her back whenever she feels danger. Botswar, half human and half robot. Traveling into the space they found another solar system that has a new planet similar to the Earth called Grama. When they landed in Grama, they found Maridia, a girl who has been chased by a fierce creature called critka. Captain Leo manages to destroy the horrible beast and saves Naridia who was really scared. But the story just begins...
