"Endangered species": Key West conch island tales, folklore and nicknames Donnie Williams

This book contains nearly 3,000 nicknames; many notoriously hung around the necks of the local populace. Many are humorous, some are cruel, and most are fitting. The same is true of the folklore, passed down from generation to generation. 'Non-conchs' as well as true Conchs are always intrigued by the lore. Research for the project was pure pleasure. Hopefully, you the reader will re-live some of these anecdotes and times of yesteryear. Enjoy these stories which I have collected and experienced through my many years in my beloved 'CONCH TOWN'.
