Growing Comes From Planting Seeds: A Roadmap for Mentoring, Coaching, and Developing Relationships that will Last a Lifetime Ron Emery

Ron Emery has spent his career mentoring, coaching and building solid business relationships. To follow on his first book “The Dysfunctional Organization”, Ron has tried to capture the skills necessary to develop true mentoring and coaching success while understanding those attributes that lead to successful business relationships as well. They all require different skills sets because they try to achieve different objectives. Each chapter has a synopsis of key points and exercises you can use to develop your own mentoring or coaching style as well as what to look for to develop successful and meaningful business relationships. He shares his thirty years of success in “Growing Comes from Planting Seeds.” As any successful farmer or businessman knows these relationships develop from a seed and once germinated need to be cultivated into a sustainable relationship. They are developed through careful cultivation and watering with just the perfect amount of sunlight leading to a successful crop or relationship. Learn just how fulfilling these relationships can be when you develop them to their fullest.
