The Girl in the Peach Tree (The Peach Tree Series) (Volume 1) Michelle Oucharek-Deo

She stood in the doorway of her parents' bedroom, palms sweating, heart racing, "I can't marry him!" she blurted, experiencing a rush of guilty relief. Cancelling the wedding the night before has left Maya Wells floundering in an emotional fog of fear and jaded family memories. Then, when a serendipitous twist offers an untraveled path of love and adventure, Maya leaps aboard, open to exploring the possibilities of a new life while facing a past that has weighed her down since she was a child. Now at 25, and as one of the eight contest winners of a month-long stay at a vine yard retreat in Portugal, Maya dives into a world of heart-felt friendships, food, love, passion, and an elusive joy, unearthed in an airport waiting room. But be warned—new friends aren't always what they seem, and falling in love is sometimes disrupted with secrets ... and yes, mean girls do exist. Join Maya as she confronts her fears and opens herself up to a love and life that helps her to become more than just The Girl in the Peach Tree.
