Wanderers walk (Volume 1) Kane Scarlett

The end of the world can come both slowly and quickly.

See the fall of civilization through the eyes of several struggling people as a genetic holocaust topples the infrastructure modern humanity depends on for its existence.

- A boy on the edge of manhood loses his family but bravely continues to tell the world what is happening.
- A recluse holds up in his apartment, trying to guide his Internet friends to find a potential cure to the outbreak.
- Two aging scientists (and lovers) work behind the scenes to stop the government cover-up of the catastrophe rushing to engulf the world's population.
- A woman tries to flee the chaos, staying one step ahead of disaster, never knowing that she is the potential key to ending the crisis.

Each unaffected soul on the planet is looking for the one answer:

How do I stop the Wandering?
