Everyday Practices of Extraordinary Consultants Christine Lambden, Casey Conner

Everyday Practices of Extraordinary Consultants contains the guidance and wisdom of veteran consultants in a practical, readable book filled with stories and real-life examples. The reader will learn the basic skills necessary to become an extraordinary consultant and avoid many of the painful mistakes made by novices (and even veterans) in the field. The writers describe their victories and failures in a light, entertaining, instructional narrative that teaches valuable business lessons. Written as a field guide for the consulting industry, it includes very specific skills any consultant can master to improve their communication, productivity and job satisfaction. Topics include presentation skills, consulting ethics, questions to ask on your first day, travel advice, consulting terminology, getting along with people, and much more.
