Q&A Pathology PhD Bruce A. Fenderson, MD, PhD Ivan Damjanov, MD Emanuel Rubin, Emanuel Rubin, Bruce Fenderson, Ivan Damjanov

Description: With over 3,500 questions and 31 sub-topics, the Q&A in Pathology CD is ideal for review for medical students, pre-med students in college level pathology courses, students in allied health professions, and Step One of the National Boards. Three different study modes are available; flash card, multiple choice, and uncued testing.

Flash Card

Flash Card mode allows you to cycle through questions and when you are ready to see the answer, click on the "Show Answer" button. Remember writing down questions on index cards and the writing the answers on the back and using these to study? Now you don't have to because over 3,500 questions are already written down for you in Q&A in Pathology.

Multiple Choice

Multiple Choice mode provides up to 5 different choices per question. Explanations are provided for incorrect answers. While taking the multiple choice quizzes, your score is displayed at the top of the screen, so you can always see how you are doing.

Uncued

Uncued mode provides the same answers (1,000's of them) per question. You must know the answer to get these questions right... no guessing!! As with the multiple choice mode, your score is tallied as you go. Two comprehensive exams are also available in the uncued mode.
