Frogs Run Too! Is a short rhyming picture book about a young frog named Duke. Duke wants to be a runner in The Animal-Olympic Games, a fantasy that he has dreamed about for his entire life. The trouble is that frogs have only ever competed in jumping events, and anyone he talks to, only mocks him for wanting to do something different. The story is humorous, not too wordy, with strong characterisations. Written for children up to ten-year-olds (But is enjoyable for all ages,) it expresses a message, that you should not be afraid to follow your dreams. I hope you enjoy reading Frogs Run Too! The illustrations created for the book by a very talented Brighton artist: Max Ardron.
