Gabriella's Travels Jenny Ford

The plane lands. With excitement and anticipation, Gabriella steps onto British soil, the first destination of her journey. Never having left her hometown in Southern Italy, Positano, before, she had always dreamt of this moment.

Sharing a room and washing facilities with complete strangers was something Gabriella had not experienced before. Her roommates were from different parts of the world, were they going to get along?

Strange things keep happening that Gabriella finds difficult to understand. But there was something she was about to discover, a lot more than she could have ever imagined.

What was in store for Gabriella on this amazing adventure!?
