Blindness (NYRB Classics) Henry Green

Blindness is the story of John Haye, a young student, and begins with an excerpt from his diary, brimming with excitement and affectation and curiosity about life and literature. Then a freak accident robs John of his sight, plunging him into despair. Forced to live with his highhanded, horsey stepmother in the country, John begins a weird dalliance with a girl named Joan, leading to a new determination. Blindness is the curse of youth and inexperience and love and ambition, and blindness, John discovers, can also be the source of vision.

Sharon Hite:

Many people spending their time period by playing outside together with friends, fun activity using family or just watching TV the whole day. You can have new activity to enjoy your whole day by looking at a book. Ugh, ya think reading a book can really hard because you have to take the book everywhere? It fine you can have the e-book, getting everywhere you want in your Smart phone. Like Blindness (NYRB Classics) which is finding the e-book version. So , try out this book? Let's notice.

Blair Gant:

As a university student exactly feel bored to be able to reading. If their teacher asked them to go to the library or to make summary for some e-book, they are complained. Just minor students that has reading's soul or real their interest. They just do what the trainer want, like asked to go to the library. They go to at this time there but nothing reading significantly. Any students feel that reading is not important, boring as well as can't see colorful photographs on there. Yeah, it is to be complicated. Book is very important to suit your needs. As we know that on this time, many ways to get whatever we would like. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this Blindness (NYRB Classics) can make you really feel more interested to read.
