BSM Theory Test Questions 2001/02 BSM

All learner drivers and riders need to pass a theory test and practical test before they can obtain a full licence. The theory test contains 35 multiple-choice questions across a range of driving, riding and road safety issues taken from a bank of over 1000. To pass the test candidates need to answer 30 of the 35 questions correctly. This manual includes the new enlarged question bank for cars and motorcycles and allows you to test yourself on your driving theory knowledge, with answers to each question at the end of every topic together with brief explanations from BSM where appropriate. Colour-coded bars allow you to locate topics instantly for reference/refresher purposes.
