Spiritual Friendship: The Classic Text with a Spiritual Commentary by Dennis Billy, C.Ss.R. (Classics with Commentary) Dennis Billy, Aelred of Rievaulx

The latest offering in the Classics with Commentary series invites readers to enter into one of the great works of the Christian tradition that sees friendship as a key to spiritual growth and true happiness. This surprisingly modern, twelfth-century classic has long been popular with monks. Now this new edition opens up the riches of this spiritual masterpiece to a wide audience of contemporary readers who see the spiritual life not as a solitary enterprise, but one intimately connected to relationships. Written in dialogue form, Aelred of Rievaulx offers wise counsel on many aspects of friendship. Dennis Billy, C.Ss.R., editor of the innovative Classics with Commentary series, has once again provided readers with an invaluable introduction and background. The popular translation by M. Eugenia Laker is complemented by Billy's helpful commentary and thoughtful reflection questions for each chapter.

Clifford Caldwell:

As a college student exactly feel bored to help reading. If their teacher questioned them to go to the library in order to make summary for some reserve, they are complained. Just small students that has reading's soul or real their hobby. They just do what the teacher want, like asked to the library. They go to at this time there but nothing reading significantly. Any students feel that reading through is not important, boring as well as can't see colorful pictures on there. Yeah, it is to become complicated. Book is very important for you personally. As we know that on this age, many ways to get whatever we really wish for. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country.
