Cozy mystery fans sit back and enjoy the second installment in The Traveling Tea Ladies series. Strong women, strong southern friendships and strong tea are steeped in this mystery best described as "Charlie's Angels Meets Steel Magnolias." O'Hara-Salyers deftly uses her storytelling craft to bring us to the National Story Telling Festival in Jonesborough, Tennessee along with Amelia, Cassandra, Sarah, and Olivia better known about town as "The Traveling Tea Ladies," because everywhere their tea travels take them, murder and mayhem seem to follow. The ladies are in town to rush to the aid of their friend Lucy Lyle, owner of Lyla's Tea Room. What starts out as cut-throat business practices that could put their friend Lucy out of business during the Story Telling Festival, quickly spirals downward into murder with all signs pointing to Lucy as the culprit. Sarah plays a pivotal role in solving this mystery as she applies her library research skills to local ghost stories of Jonesborough sending shivers down readers' backs. So hop on board this wild ride with The Traveling Tea Ladies-Death In Dixie. But be careful not to spill your tea!
