A Decade Of You Are Beautiful Matthew Hoffman

Offering a fascinating look at a worldwide phenomenon, this compendium of stories and photos follows the “You Are Beautiful” movement that began simply with 100 stickers printed in 2002 in Chicago that has since evolved into block-long murals, public installations, and more than 1 million stickers in circulation. Told through never-before heard accounts and stunning images, it starts with the very small beginnings and follows the project through 10 years of growth. Shedding light on the incredible journey of this message of positivity, this album demonstrates how “You Are Beautiful” has touched lives on every continent in the world, including Antarctica.
