A Voice in The Wilderness is a captivating thriller loosely based on the story of Jesus. When called upon to perform a seemingly impossible mission for God, CJ embarks on a task that sends him on a trajectory to disaster. While struggling to make sense of the ominous, scripture quoting voice inside his head, CJ receives a startling visit from an angel. She informs him that God has chosen him to save his people from destruction. Blessed with Christ-like powers and passionately obsessed with his quest to save mankind from God's wrath, CJ travels the country with his band of misfits, preaching the Gospel and performing mind blowing miracles. His astonishing performances and brazen denunciation of the wrongs in American society earn him worldwide celebrity status, as well as the fury of powerful religious and governmental leaders. Chief among which is Rev Bradshaw, a charismatic televangelist who leads the charge to terminate CJ's fame, his power and his life.
