Falling Doug Wilhelm

Everyone expected fifteen-year-old Matt Shaw to be Jeffords Junior High's star basketball player. But Matt never went out for the team. He won't even touch a ball anymore, and he hardly talks to anyone. No one understands why he's changed, but Matt knows that it's his "golden child" older brother who's really been doing all the changing. Matt can't imagine what would happen to his family if word got out about Neal's drug habit and the strung-out strangers he's seen coming and going from the house when their parents aren't home. Matt can't tell anyone what he knows - not his parents, not the police detective who refuses to leave him alone, not even Katie, the one girl he's ever really had feelings for. But even Matt has to wonder eventually if he's holding on to someone he may already have lost.

With his unparalleled ear for teen dialogue and emotions, Doug Wilhelm's new novel is a captivating look at falling apart, falling in love, and all the falling in between.

Wanda Jacobsen:

As a university student exactly feel bored to be able to reading. If their teacher expected them to go to the library or to make summary for some reserve, they are complained. Just very little students that has reading's soul or real their passion. They just do what the instructor want, like asked to go to the library. They go to right now there but nothing reading very seriously. Any students feel that looking at is not important, boring as well as can't see colorful images on there. Yeah, it is being complicated. Book is very important in your case. As we know that on this age, many ways to get whatever we wish. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore , this Falling can make you feel more interested to read.
